HEALTH AND SAFETY AWARENESS FOR ONTARIO SUPERVISORS

Ontario's Occupational Health and Safety Act defines a Supervisor as anyone who "has charge of a workplace or authority over a worker". In Ontario, these Supervisors are required to complete a basic occupational health and safety awareness training program within one week of working as a Supervisor. The purpose of this course is to fulfill that regulatory requirement under the Occupational Health and Safety Awareness and Training Regulation.

This online course is designed to provide Supervisors with a general awareness of their rights and responsibilities under the Occupational Health and Safety Act. Additionally, this training will focus on the position of Supervisor as a role model for healthy and safe work habits.

Who should take this course?

New and existing Supervisors within Ontario workplaces.
