

FALL ARREST TRAINING - VS - WORKING AT HEIGHTS

FALL ARREST

WHO SHOULD TAKE FALL ARREST TRAINING?

Industrial Establishments, Mining Operations, Health Care and Residential Facilities sectors and other workplaces that are not Construction Projects.

DOES THE LAW REQUIRE ME TO TAKE FALL ARREST TRAINING?

No!

 But your workplace may require that you complete specific training*

I WORK ON CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS. CAN I TAKE FALL ARREST TRAINING INSTEAD?

No!

Fall arrest/prevention training is NOT a replacement for MOL approved Working at Heights training

WORKING AT HEIGHTS

WHO SHOULD TAKE WAH TRAINING?

Those who use fall protection equipment while working on construction projects are REQUIRED to take WAH.

DOES THE LAW REQUIRE ME TO TAKE WAH TRAINING?

Yes!

 If you use fall protection equipment while working on construction projects*

CAN WAH TRAINING BE BENEFICIAL TO THOSE NOT WORKING ON CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS?

Yes!

However, it is not required, and fall arrest training or fall prevention training may be more appropriate for your workplace
